

PROFILE OF SN Mahana

Chief Manager Incharge Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust, India

- B. Sc (Electrical Engg.) from Sambhalpur University, Orrissa, India in the year 1979.
- Post Graduate Diploma in Material Management
- Diploma in Information Technology from CMC
- Entered in Port Service April 1980 at Paradip Port as Jr. Engineer and worked till 1989 as Asstt. Engineer.
- Working with Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust since 1989 in the various capacities details below:
- Dy. Manager (Electrical Maintenance) : Operation and maintenance of the entire power distribution system of JNPT
- Manager (Bulk Terminal) and Manager (Materials) : management of engineering services including material management
- Sr. Manager (M&ES/BT): management of engineering services including material management, auto garage, workshop and electrical maintenance with effective management of Power distribution system.
- Successfully designed and installed the power factor correction system at JN Port, which is unique system available in the Port sector, thereby saving substantial amount, giving provision for availability of additional power.
- Chief Manager (Operations) I/c. : Presently looking after the entire gamut of port operation since 1st August 2007 and responsible for Planning, Documentation and operation in the Bulk and Container Terminal, faster turn around of vessels by effective deployment of port handling equipments. Delivery of cargo by Rail/Road for various CFSs/ICDs within the stipulated free period. Inter-Terminal Handling Operations for evacuation of containerized cargo by Rail. Disposal of unclaimed cargo by way of auction/tender. I conduct weekly progress review meeting for monitoring various activities of Port Operation, Project Management, Maintenance Management and Materials Management
